“KAIROS”

a time in between

BEST SHORT FILM PRIZE 2021

duration: 10 minutes

author's age limit: 30 years

25/31 October

REGULATION

The cultural association Mitreo Film Festival, for the XXIth edition of the homonymous festival, announces a call for selection for international short films lasting a maximum of 10 minutes, the theme is "KAIROS"(understood as “An in-between time in which things are created”) and must be explicitly the heart of the story and the value around which the plot revolves, of whatever kind the short film is (drama, comedy etc ...).

The relevance to the theme must be clear and evident already in the synopsis of the work and / or in the director's notes that must accompany the application material, under penalty of exclusion.

The call is intended for authors who are under the age of 30 at 11.59 pm on 15 September 2021.

The short films must be strictly 10 minutes long and subtitled in Italian if in a different language.

The director of the short film is the author and owner of his rights.

The short film can be produced by small independent productions, but the representative and holder of the rights must still be the author who as such is a candidate for the competition.

Applications from distributors and manufacturers will NOT be considered.

The Competition will adapt to the Covid19 safety provisions and if necessary it will take place entirely online on the MitreoFilmFestival website www.mitreofilmfestival.it where the public can express their preference.

Among all the works registered on the Filmfreeway platform, that meet the requirements and have sent the required documents by the deadline date of the call, the staff of the MitreoFilmFestival2021 will select, at its sole discretion, 50 short films: 20 for the International Competition, 10 for the Competition Section Campani, 20 for the Out of Competition Section.

By October 10th, the MitreoFilmFestival staff will publish the names of the finalists and their works on the website.

The Technical Jury composed of Giuseppe Colella, Marika De Rosa, Andrea D'Ambrosio, Gianfranco Gallo, Nathalie Rossetti, Antonella Stefanucci will decide the winner of the 2021 BEST SHORT FILM AWARD to which the cash prize will go together with the sculpture depicting the Mithraeum.

The winning author undertakes to mention the Award received and the MitreoFilmFestival 2021 in the titles of the short film.

The Audience Jury will be represented by the ARTZONE-II PIACERE DELLA CULTURA Association which will award the Audience Award consisting of a sculpture depicting the Mithraeum, choosing the winner from the 10 most voted works online.

The Youth Jury, made up of young university students from Luigi Vanvitelli, will award the plate WITHOUT FEAR, choosing the short film that will best be able to tell its story by daring with courage, innovation and experimentation. The winning author undertakes to mention the Award received and the MitreoFilmFestival 2021 in the titles of the short film.

The Corti Campani Jury composed of David Roncone, Luigi Di Domenico and Michele Pisano will award the Best Short Campano Award, consisting of a sculpture depicting the Mithraeum.

The screening of the short films in the Theater will concern only the winning shorts and the award ceremony will take place during the final evening at the Garibaldi Theater, on October 31st, also in live streaming.

Registration takes place exclusively on the FILMFRREWAY platform, no work will be accepted by mail or shipping. For each short film, a symbolic fee of € 10.00 (10 euros) must be paid, which will be uploaded to the platform at the time of registration as well as sending the material listed below, exclusively to the email of the infoline @ mitreofilmfestival secretariat. .it by 11.59 pm on 15 September under penalty of exclusion:

- 1) application form and attached release, attached to this regulation, complete with the personal data of the candidate, drawn up in .pdf format and signed on each page;
- 2) author's biofilmography
- 3) signed copy of an identity document properly scanned (.pdf file format);
- 4) link of the proposed short film;
- 5) synopsis of the proposed short film;
- 6) director's notes of the proposed short film;
- 7) copy of this regulation signed on each page;

On the FilmFreeWay platforms, it is recommended to also include the synopsis and director's notes of the work under penalty of exclusion from the selections.

The selections will be made by the Staff of the MitreoFilmFestival 2021 and its judgment is final.

The selected authors undertake to send a high quality copy of the short film by 18 October. High quality files on pen and bluray will be accepted.

For everything not indicated in this announcement, the direction of the festival will decide.

The call is officially open from 11.59 pm on July 15th approx. and expires at 11.59 pm on 15 September approx

This announcement can be downloaded from the website www.mitreofilmfestival.it
